sparkling wine

Chapel Hill Sparkling Pinot Grigio, Hungary

A light sparkler from Hungary using Italy's favourite grape. Easy drinking at its best.

£19.75

Prosecco Frizzante Spago, Italy

Prosecco has a gentler bubble effect as it has less gas than other sparkling wines. Lovely lemon edge in this one.

£21.50

Rose Legatura Frizzante

Fabulous pink bubbles from this top Prosecco house – one for the summer!

£25.00

Camel Valley Brut Sparkling, United Kingdom

The iconic Cornish sparkler. Just won an award for best sparkling wine in the world.

£35.00

Pelorus, New Zealand

From the Cloudy Bay stable of great wines. Made, like some Champagnes, from a blend of predominantly Chardonnay & some Pinot Noir, it is stored for two years to develop complex layers of flavour. Apple crisp flavours with a hint of nuttiness below.

£36.00

champagne

Billecart Salmon Brut, France

This small family run estate produces Champagne of exceptional quality. The same blend of grapes has been used for 50 years to give a fine dry sparkler with tree fruit and blackberry flavours, and a touch of citrus in the finish.

£58.00

Veuve Clicquot Brut, France

There is only one 'Widow'. This Champagne is made mostly from Pinot Noir and presents a very distinct style which is full-bodied, biscuity and very consistent.

£59.95

Laurent Perrier Rosé, France

The pink colour of this outstanding Champagne is achieved by letting the grape skins 'bleed' into the juice for three days. Perfectly balanced with a lovely strawberry aspect and complexity.

£70.00

Dom Perignon Vintage, France

This expressive wine has a complex blend of flavours. Brioche richness from the yeast, blend with honey tones and fresh almonds and apricots. The original and arguably still the best.
